

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 23-CR-241-JFH

CODY PAUL MILLER,

Defendant.

OPINION AND ORDER

Before the Court is an Unopposed Motion for Continuance and Extension of Deadlines (“Motion”) filed by Defendant Cody Paul Miller (“Defendant”). Dkt. No. 16. The Motion states the United States of America (“Government”) does not oppose the requested continuance. Id. at 1. The Government filed a response clarifying that while it does not oppose a continuance of the matter, it does oppose any continuance beyond November 13, 2023 as counsel for the Government is expected to be on maternity leave near that time. Dkt. No. 17. For the reasons set forth below, the Motion is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The Motion is granted in that the Court will continue the jury trial and scheduling order deadlines. The Motion is denied in that the Court will place this matter on the Court’s November 6, 2023 jury trial docket.

The Motion falls under § 3161(h)(7)(A) of the Speedy Trial Act. This section permits a federal district court to exclude any period of delay resulting from a continuance if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). A court must orally or in writing set forth its reasons for granting an ends of justice continuance and make findings that a continuance is in the best interest of the defendant and the public. Id. The statute permits a court to consider whether “the failure to grant such a continuance ... would deny counsel for the defendant ... the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.” Id. at § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Tenth Circuit has been clear that an ends of justice continuance should not be granted “cavalierly” and it was intended to be a “rarely used tool.” United States v. Williams, 511 F.3d 1044, 1048-49 (10th Cir. 2007).

In United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), the Tenth Circuit limited the circumstances in which an ends of justice continuance can be granted and emphasized that this should be a rarely used procedural tool. The parties must provide the district court a sufficient record to determine why the facts stated in a motion for continuance “result[] in the need for additional time.” Id. at 1271. This requires the parties to provide specific information about the need for a continuance, and the district court may need to hold a hearing before granting an ends of justice continuance. Id. at 1272-73. A district court must also give significant weight to the public’s interest in a speedy trial, and the public’s interest is generally served by strict adherence to the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act. Id. at 1273.

Defendant requests additional time because discovery in this matter is still ongoing. Dkt. No. 16 at 1. Specifically, the parties anticipate forthcoming forensic interviews of two (2) minor witnesses, as well as a follow-up interview with the victim in this matter. Dkt. No. 13 at 1. Defense counsel requires additional time to review this outstanding discovery once received and to complete the defense investigation. Dkt. No. 16 at 1. Additionally, defense counsel has a trial in Muskogee County District Court set to begin on September 25, 2023, the date of the current trial setting in this matter. Id. Finally, the parties require additional time to continue negotiations to possibly resolve this matter without the need for trial. Id. The Court finds Defendant has executed a speedy trial waiver, asking the Court to exclude any period of delay for an ends of justice continuance. Dkt. No. 16-1. In addition to considering Defendant's interests, the Court has considered the public's interest in the speedy resolution of criminal cases and finds that a limited ends of justice continuance will not subvert the public's interest in the prompt prosecution of criminal matters.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion for Continuance and Extension of Deadlines filed at Dkt. No. 16 is GRANTED IN PART AND DENIED IN PART. The jury trial set for September 25, 2023 at 8:45 a.m. is stricken. The following amended scheduling order is hereby entered:

Joint status report regarding production of discovery filed: 8/31/2023

Notices filed: 8/31/2023

This includes all notices required by the Rules of Criminal Procedure and Evidence, including but not limited to, notices pursuant to Rule 16, 404(b), 412, 413, 414, or 609.

Motions and objections to notices filed: 9/7/2023

Absent good cause, motions in limine shall be filed by this date

Motions for bill of particulars shall be filed pursuant to FRCrP 7(f)

Pretrial conference: 9/28/2023 at 9:30 am

Voir dire, jury instructions, stipulations, & trial briefs filed: 10/27/2023

Witness and exhibit lists exchanged between counsel and emailed to courtroom deputy (do not file): 11/2/2023 by 4:00 pm

Three hard-copy exhibit binders delivered to Court: 11/2/2023 by 4:00 pm

Jury trial: 11/6/2023 at 8:45 am

Due to the Court's multi-district caseload, this schedule is relatively inflexible.

Pursuant to LCrR 47-2, any response shall be filed within seven days of any motion's filing. Replies are not permitted without leave of Court. If leave is granted, replies shall be limited to five pages.

Only one omnibus motion in limine per party and one motion to suppress per defendant is permitted without leave of Court.

The Court shall summarily deny without prejudice any motion that does not comply with LCrR 47-4, which requires a motion state on the first page whether or not it is opposed and, if opposed, state whether concurrence was refused or explain why concurrence could not be obtained.

The parties should meet and confer in good faith to discuss any stipulations that would streamline the issues at trial. Any stipulations agreed to should be submitted by the date listed.

If the parties anticipate a lengthy pretrial/motion hearing, they are directed to promptly contact the Courtroom Deputy and the hearing will be reset.

If the parties anticipate a plea of guilty, they are directed to promptly contact the Courtroom Deputy and a change of plea hearing (separate from the pretrial docket call) will be set. The parties must provide a petition to enter plea of guilty and any plea agreement (if applicable) to the Court and file any superseding information (if applicable) at least three business days prior to the change of plea hearing.

The parties are encouraged to review the Court's Criminal Guidelines.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the time from September 25, 2023, inclusive, to November 6, 2023, inclusive, is excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7).

Dated this 22nd day of August 2023.
